

► Fill in the correct tense of the verbs in brackets

- 1 If the weather is nice tomorrow, we ... (to have) a barbecue.
- 2 Would you like to live in America if you ... (to be) able to choose?
- 3 My brother would have bought a car if he ... (not to fail) his driving test.
- 4 We ... (not to tell) anyone if you want to keep this information secret.
- 5 We could have helped Jenny if we ... (to know) about her problems.
- 6 I ... (to give) you a fair price if you decided to sell your computer.
- 7 If the taxi-driver ... (not to get) lost, we could have got here earlier.
- 8 I could buy those white jeans if I ... (to have) ten pounds more.
- 9 If Leo ... (to have) problems at school, he should talk to his teacher.
- 10 Would you go out more often if you ... (not to have) so much homework?

► Complete the sentences with 'if' or 'when'

- 11 ... you arrive in Bristol, I'll pick you up from the station.
- 12 ... your flight arrives late, Dad will meet you at the airport.
- 13 Peter might be at the Party. ... he's there, I'll give him your message.
- 14 ... I know how much the concert tickets cost, I'll phone you.

► Translate the German parts into English

- 15 You could save a lot of time (wenn du ein Auto hättest.) ...
- 16 If Peter doesn't come soon, (essen wir ohne ihn.) ...
- 17 (Wenn du rennen würdest) ..., you would catch the bus.
- 18 (Jane hätte die Antwort gewusst) ... if she had listened in class.

► Choose the correct form from the brackets

- 19 If you (would live / lived) in England, you would have school every afternoon.
- 20 Will you phone me (if / when) you arrive at the hotel?
- 21 If you had a Saturday job, you (had / would have) more money.
- 22 Jill would be happier if she (would be / was) back at home with her friends.

► Correct the mistakes

- 23 If you wait a minute, I go with you.
- 24 If you would go by train, it would be quicker than by bus.
- 25 I would have phoned you if you didn't forget to give me your number.
- 26 What would you do if somebody would give you a thousand dollars?
- 27 If we hadn't forgotten the map, we had not got lost.
- 28 If the weather will be good, we can go swimming tomorrow.
- 29 I might speak perfect English if I live in America. But I don't.
- 30 If somebody would have taken your money, what would you have done?

► Fill in the correct tense of the verbs in brackets

- 1 If the weather is nice tomorrow, we ll have a barbecue. (Typ I)
- 2 Would you like to live in America if you were able to choose? (Typ II)
- 3 My brother would have bought a car if he hadn't failed his driving test. (Typ III)
- 4 We won't tell anyone if you want to keep this information secret. (Typ I)
- 5 We could have helped Jenny if we had known about her problems. (Typ III)
- 6 I would give you a fair price if you decided to sell your computer. (Typ II)
- 7 If the taxi-driver hadn't got lost, we could have got here earlier. (Typ III)
- 8 I could buy those white jeans if I had ten pounds more. (Typ II)
- 9 If Leo had problems at school, he should talk to his teacher. (Typ II)
- 10 Would you go out more often if you didn't have so much homework? (Typ II)

► Complete the sentences with 'if' or 'when'

- 11 When
- 12 If
- 13 If
- 14 When

► Translate the German parts into English

- 15 You could save a lot of time if you had a car.
- 16 If Peter doesn't come soon, we'll eat without him.
- 17 If you ran, you would catch the bus.
- 18 Jane would have known the answer if she had listened in class.

► Choose the correct form from the brackets

- 19 If you lived in England, you would have school every afternoon.
- 20 Will you phone me when you arrive at the hotel?
- 21 If you had a Saturday job, you would have more money.
- 22 Jill would be happier if she was back at home with her friends.

► Correct the mistakes

- 23 If you wait a minute, I ll go with you.
- 24 If you went by train, it would be quicker than by bus.
- 25 I would have phoned you if you hadn't forgotten to give me your number.
- 26 What would you do if somebody gave you a thousand dollars?
- 27 If we hadn't forgotten the map, we wouldn't have not got lost.
- 28 If the weather is good, we can go swimming tomorrow.
- 29 I might speak perfect English if I lived in America. But I don't.
- 30 If somebody had taken your money, what would you have done?