

A School Act

Teacher: “Good morning boys and girls.

Pupils: “Good morning, Mr. T ...!”

Teacher: “Sit down please. What about your homework?
Well, Ch ..., will you read your homework, please?”

Ch ...: “Oh, sorry, I left it on the school bus.”

Teacher: “Mmh, well, then, J ..., what about your homework?”

J ...: “Oh, sorry, I left my pencil at school. So, I couldn’t do my homework.”

Teacher: “Mmh, well, F ..., what about your homework?”

F ...: “Oh, sorry, I can’t find my exercise book. Where is my exercise book?”

Teacher: “Mmh, well, H ..., what about your homework?”

H ...: “Oh, sorry, I left my school bag at school, yesterday.” I have no homework.”

Teacher: “Ah, well, S ..., what about your homework?”

S ...: “Oh, sorry, I’ve lost my pencil case. I could not write one word at home.”

Teacher: “Ah, well, A ..., what about your homework?”

A ...: “Oh, sorry, it was my sister’s birthday. So I couldn’t do my homework.

Teacher: “Ah, well, V ..., what about your homework?”

V ...: “Oh, sorry, my Mum always says: “Clean your room!” So I couldn’t do my homework.”

Teacher: “Ah, well, L ..., what about your homework?”

L ...: “Oh, sorry, my pen was empty. So I couldn’t write my homework.”

Teacher: “Ah, well, D ..., tell me: What was your homework for today?”

D ...: Our homework was this: We had to find a good excuse, why we have done no homework.

Teacher: Well, children, tell me what do you learn at school? What are your favourite lessons?

H ...: My favourite lesson is maths. One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty

Teacher: Oh, thank you! You can count very well. What about you, J ...?

J ...: My favourite lesson is painting. Red, white, yellow, brown, black, green, pink, purple, grey, orange...

Teacher: Oh, thank you! You know the colours very well. What about you, F ...?

F ...: My favourite lesson is music. (plays a tune on an instrument)

Teacher: Oh, thank you! You can play music very well. What about you, D ...?

D ...: My favourites are animals. - Mice!
I think, mice are rather nice.
Their tails are long, their faces small;
They haven't any chins at all.
Their ears are pink, their teeth are white,
They run about the house at night;
They nibble things they shouldn't touch,
and, no one seems to like them much,
but, I think mice are rather nice.

Teacher: Oh, thank you! You know mice very well. What about you, Ch ...?

Ch ...: My favourite lesson is sport: "Let's play football.
Football is great!
Kick and run!
This is fun!"

Teacher: Oh, thank you! You can do sport very well. And now it's your turn, V

V ...: I'd like to be an actor: (goes to the front of the class and speaks in a dark voice)
I'm a dangerous Gorilla. I'm a bit of a thriller ...

(The teacher gets frightened and runs away quickly!)

V ...: Oh, thank you! You can run away very well!
