

BBC Television Programme

BBC radio and television were founded to inform, educate and entertain. First copy this chart:

information	education	entertainment
-------------	-----------	---------------

Now look at the BBC programmes and find out which programme fits into which category best. Why? Write the programme title into that column of the chart.

Imagine you were allowed two hours of TV that day. Choose the programmes you would watch and put them in order - your favourite first etc. Give reasons why you've chosen certain programmes.
